Mrs. Mollie West, of Clarksburg, who spent the week-end with her brother, Bruce West and family, was guest of honor at a dinner of hand-some appointments on Sunday evening at the home of Mr. West on Columbia Terrace.

At 10:30 o'clock refreshments were served in the dining room which was artistically decorated. APPEAL MADE FOR CLOTHES FOR THE NEEDY

By the Local Associated Charities through John Sopher, Its Secretary.

The Associated Charities through John Sopher, its secretary, makes the following appeal:

In making our appeal for clothing, shoes, bed clothes or any thing you might spare that would make some unfortunate family comfortable, we do not want to forget to thank you for former donations. However, we need again; God has given us splendid weather so far this fall, but today the snow is flying—this means misery and suffering for the less fortunate of our fellows. We are making a special effort to help children that might need clothing to go to school, and we especially need children's clothing, shoes, etc.

Imagine one case, a widow with four children, three of them school age, no means of support, except as she makes it by washing. Remember that anything you give us is given away in Clarksburg and vicinity. Without any charges, go through your wardrobes and closets and if you find anything, call Bell telephone 241, or Home 46, and we will arrange to get them.

Joy the turkey supper which will be served at 5:30 o'clock Tuesday evening.

Distress in the Stomach.
There are many people who have a distress in the stomach after eating. It is due to indigestion and easily remedied by taking one of Chamberlain's Tablets after each meal. Mrs. Henry Padgham, Victoria, N. Y., writes: "For some time I was troubled with headache and distress in my stomach after eating, also with constipation. About six months ago I began taking Chamberlain's Tablets. They regulated the action of my bowels and the headache and other annoyances ceased in a short time." Obtainable everywhere. Advertisement.

EMBARGO IS NOT TO HURT ONE DISTRICT

As That District, Namely, Pittsburg, Does Not Have Big Export Trade Now.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS)

PITTSBURG, Nov. 30.—Announcement by the Baltimore and Ohio railroad yesterday of an embargo on steel products passing through the New York terminal will not seriously affect this district, only thirty-five cars a day being shipped to that point, while some eighty cars make up the steel trade for Philadelphia and Baltimore. Much of this freight is for foreign ports other than those in Europe.

Reports from other railroads leading to the East indicate that every precaution is being taken to prevent congestion at Atlantic terminals. Three thousand cars loaded with export steel were said to be in the yards at Hollidaysburg, Pa., closely guarded by railroad policemen until they can be sent on their way. This material, valued at approximately ten million dollars, consists largely of steel car parts, wheels, etc., for Russia, which will be routed through the Panama canal. There is also a considerable tonnage of bridge steel.

NEWS EVENTS OF BRIDGEPORT

Correspondent Compiles Items of Interest about Folk of That Community.

BRIDGEPORT, Nov. 30.—Miss Lavina Engle, of New York, field secretary for the National Woman Suffrage Association, who will address the public in the Methodist Protestant church Thursday evening at 6:30 o'clock, comes with glowing recommendations as a speaker of more than ordinary ability.

Aside from being a young woman of charming personality, she is a living example of the fact that an enthusiastic suffragist can be a good cook. She is the author of a well known book of culinary recipes. Not only has she carefully studied the woman's side of the suffrage question but is prepared to discuss the many economic problems of interest to the laboring man. Miss Engle will speak at 6:30 so as not to conflict with the revival services now in progress at the Simpson Creek Baptist church. There is no admission charge and it is hoped that men will avail themselves of such a rare opportunity. Especially are the country people invited to join in the support of this movement.

MOUNT CLARE MURMURINGS

Events of the Community Are Set Down by a Telegram Correspondent.

MT. CLARE, Nov. 30.—The Rev. E. G. Vincent filled the pulpit in the Methodist Episcopal here Sunday evening for the Rev. Mr. Workman, who is engaged in his revival work at Green Hill. Before beginning his sermon, Mr. Vincent admonished some of his congregation who did not regard the sanctity of the house of God, to desist from their habit of talking or chewing peanuts during the service, and if they must come to church with a wad of chewing gum in their mouths, to stick the "wad" against the weatherboarding outside the church, and they would be permitted to take it as they passed out after the close of the services.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Methodist Episcopal church will meet with Mrs. H. B. Workman at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon at the parsonage.

Mrs. Lutton and Mrs. Livesay were Clarksburg visitors Monday.

NARROW ESCAPE

Automobile Driven by Ray Fletcher Plunges into the West Fork River.

Ray Fletcher, son of A. J. Fletcher, had a narrow escape from death or serious injury Monday evening when the automobile which he was driving skidded and plunged over a high embankment into the West Fork river a short distance south of the corporate limits of Stealey Heights. Only the front wheels of the machine went into the river, the rear ones being held on the bank by the thick mud.

Young Fletcher was uninjured, beyond a few minor scratches and a shaking up. He was alone in the car. The fact that the mud prevented the rear wheels of the machine from going into the river probably saved the boy's life, as he would probably have been drowned in the stream; at the very least he would have received a cold bath, which would have been very uncomfortable with the temperature as it stood at the time.

SUFFERERS APPEAL TO SEAL'S FUND

Some Pathetic Letters Are Received by Secretary of the National Organization.

One mail on the desk of the secretary of the National Tuberculosis Association brought in the other day a varied assortment of appeals for help from the Red Cross Christmas seal fund. Here they are:

One mother writes relative to a little son with tuberculosis of the spine. She does not want to see him become a hunchback. One writes for help for her daughter. She is without money, but she will work to support her daughter. One wife writes that she is making a fight to get well. She has a family of three children, and she is afraid that her husband is also infected. The future does not look bright for her. She is afraid that her three children will in a short time be orphans. A school teacher writes that in her room last year was a very bright and promising pupil, a young girl sixteen years of age. He missed her this year and after a short time started an investigation to learn why she was not with the class. He soon found her. She was confined to her bed with consumption. She and her mother lived together in a shanty, and her mother was taking in washings.

Not all of these and hundreds of similar appeals can be headed, because there is not enough money. Will you buy Red Cross seals to make the burden lighter for some poor sufferer?
